

The mission of the ASOP Advanced Course is to provide the more experienced Orthopedic Technologist the opportunity to bring new techniques and products back to their practice for better patient services and outcomes.

Agenda

Friday July 20th

- 8:30 - 9:00am Sign-in
- 9:00 – 11:30am Transform your cast into a custom orthosis with 3M soft cast. Lecture and hands-on lab.
- 11:30 – 12:00 Advancements in Shoulder Rehab with the V Sling
- LUNCH Sponsored by AquaCast waterproof liner system
- 1:00 – 2:30pm Waterproof Casting using AquaCast waterproof casting system. Lecture and hands-on lab
- 2:30 – 3:30pm Orthofix Bone Stim Advancements in bone healing
- 3:30 – 4:30pm I-Walk Crutch evaluation and fitting techniques
- 4:30 – 5:00pm New Muenster Cast Technique using reverse palm technique and no-cut elbow
- 5:00 – Finish Master Caster Practical Examination. Pre-requisites: ASOP membership, three years' experience plus ROT/OTC/OPE/OPA.
- If you are taking the Master Caster Practical you must bring your own supplies to include stockinet, padding and cast tape to apply two upper extremity casts

Saturday July 21st

- 8:30 – 9:00am Sign-in
- 9:00 – 12:00 Peds Casting with ASOP Instructor Jared Nielson. Hip Spica Lecture and hands-on lab using true medical simulation mannequins.
- Lunch Sponsored by CNF Performance Cast Tape
- 1:00 - 2:00pm Zipline Medical Suturing Lecture and Lab. You will learn and practice the latest in no needle wound closure.
- 2:00 – 3:30pm Total Contact Casting with ASOP Instructor Jack Hart Lecture and hands-on lab
- 3:30 – 3:45pm Castfit cast swelling pressure release system
- 3:45 – 4:00pm History of the short leg walking boot. Boot vs Cast study
- 4:00 – 5:00pm Career development and employment. Healthcare changes affecting your career. Increasing staff productivity and income through sponsored programs. Instructor opportunities

Lunch is included on Friday and Saturday. Breakfast is served to all hotel guests

